

Are You Prepared? Everything you always wanted to know about staying alive during an EARTHQUAKE or TSUNAMI (but were afraid to ask!).

VENICE BE READY EXPO

Per City Officials: assume we will be on our own in an emergency and therefore we must have an Emergency Preparedness Plan and supplies in place!

Attending this Expo could save the lives of your loved ones and you!

A FREE Event for the whole family
Sunday, May 31, 1-4 pm
Westside Leadership Magnet School

104 Anchorage (@ Pacific, 1 block south of Washington), Venice/Marina del Rey, 90292

- 20 minute "Power Talks" @ 1:30, 2:30 & 3:30 p.m. on the "why's" and "how-to's" of Emergency Preparedness (followed by Q&A). Given by L.A.F.D. experts, sessions are humorous and motivating, and offer practical information you will want to take home and implement immediately!
- Learn your role and responsibility in an emergency, vs. the Police & Fire Departments, American Red Cross and other agencies
- 3 minute Emergency Preparedness "Info Blasts" AND personal, one-on-one Q&A: Venice Fire & Police Departments, American Red Cross, L.A. Animal Services, Earthquake & Tsunami Experts, Venice Beach Lifeguards, State Insurance Officers, The Gas Company, City of L.A. Emergency Management Department and more, including special remarks by City Councilperson Bill Rosendahl at 2 p.m.
- Demonstrations of Emergency Preparedness products and safety techniques, including the critical "how-to" for turning off water, gas and electricity
- Live music, raffles, give-aways and free water, courtesy of Yosemite Waters
- Learn life-saving techniques (CPR) with your kids
- Emergency Preparedness for your pets

Hope for the best, prepare for the worst!

If you live in Venice, this Expo is a MUST for you!
